Nomination an Election Notice for Delegates

To the 40th Convention of the Grand Lodge of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers

The purpose of this communication is to advise you of your right to participate in the nomination and election process, of the procedures to be used to conduct the nomination and election of delegates by mail, and of important dates and deadlines that are part of the nomination and election process.

Nomination for Delegates to the 40th Grand Lodge Convention will only be accepted from members in good standing of Local Lodge 1979. Candidates for Delegates to the 40th Grand Lodge Convention must meet the requirements outlined in the QUALIFICATIONS OF DELEGATES Section of Official Circular 874 which reference and incorporate Article II Section 4 of the IAM Constitution.

If you would like to nominate a member to serve as a Delegate to the Grand Lodge Convention, complete and return the enclosed nomination form via postal mail to the Recording Secretary of Local Lodge 1979 so that the nomination Form is received on or before 14 April 2021. Members appearing on the Nomination Forms received after 14 April 2021 shall not appear on the ballot for Delegates to the 40th Grand Lodge Convention.

Your Local Lodge Executive Board has determined that the Local Lodge is sending up to one delegate per Collective Bargaining Agreement. You are entitled to nominate and elect a member.

The nomination form can only be returned by the member completing the nomination form. Nomination forms cannot be bundled, members cannot return nomination forms or ballots for other members.

On 28 April 2021 or before you will be mailed a ballot for the election of Delegates to the 40th Grand Lodge Convention from the Recording Secretary along with instructions for completing and returning that ballot.

In solidarity,
